Privacy collection statement

The parishes of the Archdiocese of Brisbane (we, us or our) may collect, use and disclose personal information about you. We collect personal information directly from you and may also collect personal information passively through our website. We collect your personal information to fulfil the mission and directions of our organisation, to administer the sacraments and provide pastoral care to you, to provide you with other services and products you are seeking, to communicate with you about the services and products we offer, to solicit donations and to comply with our legal and regulatory requirements. If the personal information you provide to the parishes is incomplete or inaccurate, the parishes may be unable to provide you, or someone else you know, with the services or products you, or they, are seeking. We may disclose personal information about you to our parishes, schools and agencies and service providers for the purpose for which it was collected to assist us in operating our organisation. Our Privacy Policy (www.bne.catholic.net.au or on request) sets out how you can access and ask for correction of your personal information, how you can complain about privacy-related matters and how we respond to complaints.
